Education and Training Fund

The Seattle Police Relief Association has a fund to help members meet the cost of work-related education and training. The SPRA education benefit reimburses tuition expenses up to $300 per member per year. Benefits are payable for courses for which the member pays tuition. Benefits will be paid to members who submit an application and evidence of having successfully completed the class or program. Active members in good standing are eligible to apply for tuition reimbursement. For reimbursement, please see below.

Upon completion of the class, please attach copies of

- ✓ Certificate of completion
- ✓ Receipt showing tuition paid, and
- ✓ City's denial of tuition funding
